INSURANCE COVERAGE TO THE AIR CADET PROGRAM

General

WHY INSURANCE COVERAGE?

The Cadet Program is one of the largest federally sponsored youth programs in Canada and includes the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets, Royal Canadian Army Cadets and the Royal Canadian Air Cadets. The Department of National Defence has overall responsibility for the Cadet Program and is supported by the Navy League, the Army League, and the Air Cadet League of Canada.

As an independent and federally incorporated registered charity, the Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) must secure appropriate liability and property insurance coverage. Additionally, the ACL has assumed the responsibility to insure cadets, registered and screened volunteers, and League employees against risk by contracting and administering sufficient insurance coverage to protect them while they assist in the delivery of the Air Cadet Program.

ACL Insurance Coverage

This report is provided as a brief summary of the League's insurance coverage for quick reference purposes. Any questions relating to the interpretation of the coverage or limits of protection must be referred to the policy documents themselves.

This document may not be reproduced or distributed without authorization of the ACL National Office.

POLICIES IN EFFECT

The ACL has contracted several policies that cover different aspects of the program:

Part I - General Insurance (AON Reed Stenhouse Inc.)

- Accidental Death, Dismemberment (AD&D) and Specific Loss Indemnity
- Liability Insurance (underlying policies include Commercial General Liability and Umbrella Liability)
- Auto Insurance
- Directors and Officers Insurance

It is important to understand the key factor that determines whether a cadet or adult is covered by our insurance policies. The overriding condition is that the activity during which the incident occurred MUST be an authorized cadet activity. Proof may be requested by the insurer that the activity was in fact authorized in accordance with instructions from the responsible military headquarters.

Part II- Aviation Insurance (AON Reed Stenhouse Inc.)

- Commercial Aviation Insurance (To provide coverage for aircraft physical damage, spare parts, personal injury, aircraft liability, medical coverage).
- Aviation Liability Insurance (To provide coverage for any airport premises owned by, leased to or occupied by the League as well as flight operations.)
- Non-Owned Aircraft Liability Insurance (To provide supplementary coverage for any aircraft not owned by the ACL.)

WHO DETERMINES THE PREMIUMS AND HOW ARE THEY PAID?

Premiums are determined by the insurance carrier and may increase from time to time. These costs are paid up front by the National Office of the ACL.

PART I – General Insurance

AD&D Insurance

This policy provides coverage for injuries as a result of an accident only while, and or during a sanctioned event. The coverage is not designed to be a primary policy. It is designed to be complementary coverage that picks up where any other coverage, whether provincial health coverage, private medical or dental coverage, coverage which is provided by car insurance policies, etc. may leave off or expire. For example, where a cadet requires chiropractic treatment as a result of an injury and has coverage under another benefit plan providing similar benefits, plans will be coordinated.

Individuals, including members of the Canadian Forces (CF) and Civilian Instructors who are under contract to the Department of National Defence (DND) and whose liability and accident benefits are assumed by DND, are not covered by the Air Cadet League insurance.

WHO IS COVERED?

All Cadets and visiting cadets ages 12 to 22, all League members, volunteers, escorts, and full-time employees are covered under this policy. The age limit is 85 years of age. It is very important to note that the insurance policy will only cover air cadets and individuals who have a formal status with the ACL.

WHAT COVERAGE IS PROVIDED?

In general terms, the following benefits are provided under the accident policy:

- Accidental death and dismemberment benefit.
- Accident Reimbursement Benefits include expenses incurred for: hospital services; licensed ambulance services; the employment of a registered nurse; reasonable and customary treatment by a licensed chiropractor or osteopath; rental of crutches, medical appliances; prescription drugs; cost of splints, trusses and braces; physiotherapy when recommended by a legally qualified physician or surgeon; the initial purchase of a hearing aid, glass eye or orthopedic prosthesis; x-rays.
- Accidental dental expense benefit.
- Rehabilitation benefit.
- Repatriation benefit.
- Family member transportation benefit.
- Home alteration and vehicle modification benefit.

PART I – General Insurance

WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES ARE NOT COVERED?

Note that cadets are covered while travelling directly from home or school to the cadet activity and directly from the cadet activity back home. However, any stops in between the point of departure and the cadet activity will terminate the coverage.

Parents transporting cadets in their own vehicles assume liability for the cadets under their own auto policies and must have sufficient auto insurance in compliance with the laws of the province in which they live.

Some accident coverage is provided directly by the CF, such as some emergency dental and medical attention and eyeglasses damaged during authorized cadet activities and the care for cadets at summer camps.

Cadets are not covered under this policy when they fly. This coverage is provided under our Aviation Insurance policies.

Policy details and limitations are contained in the insurance policy administered by the National Office of the ACL.

CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Certificates of Insurance may be issued on request to a cadet squadron where proof of insurance is requested by a Landlord or Association that is permitting the cadets to operate on their property. These certificates are “event specific” but can sometimes be issued for “Block” proof of coverage, for example for use of a facility on a weekly basis during an extended period of time. Requests for certificates should be submitted using the online application form.
